|    | The researcher has done her job well in leading the teaching learning activities in the classroom. She led the class ensuring every student had the opportunity to participate in the classroom activities. However, there are still many students who do not understand the technique used because they have never carried out learning using these techniques. And there are still many students who are still shy and hesitant to participate in the learning process. With this, researcher must pay attention to student participation so that learning is carried out well. |
